To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to provide a strong recommendation on behalf of Sir Mark Logsdon as both a performer and a master of his craft. I have had the pleasure of working with Mark at the Festival of the Dragon 2010.

Mark is one of the finest performers I have had the pleasure of working with. His skill as an escapologist is masterful and is enhanced by his amazing skill as a performer. He never ceases to amaze and engage his audience with his skill, wit, and charm.

Sir Mark is also gracious in asking for feedback and in accepting criticism. It takes a secure person to invite criticism and I think this reflects Mark's interest in constantly improving his craft. He has proven to be a wonderful collaborator and a personable, creative individual whose work and work ethic merit high praise. Finally, he is a person with a sense of humor and one who can maintain a realistic perspective in complex situations.

In summation, Mark's work is highly professional and his personal style comfortable and accessible – he always has the respect and admiration of his fellow artists. I would not hesitate to recommend Sir Mark Logsdon as an entertainer for any event and would be happy to discuss my experience of his work with you in greater detail.

Sincerely,

Mysteri N David
